Eastern Connection Expands with Addition of Four Operations Managers

Woburn, Mass.—Eastern Connection in Woburn, Mass.—the largest regional parcel carrier serving the East Coast—has continued to expand by recently adding four Operations Managers: Craig Raabe in the Woburn office; Frank Kean in the Newark, NJ, office; Gary Cuff in the Philadelphia, PA, office; and Russell Rosecrans in the Stamford, CT, office.

Prior to joining Eastern Connection, Raabe was a Route Manager of the Industrial Division/Commercial Division at Waste Management Inc. in Woburn. Raabe was also an Operations Supervisor at DHL in Stoneham, Mass., and an Operations Supervisor at United Parcel Service (UPS). He received his BA from Johnson State College in Johnson, VT.

Previously, Kean was an Operations Manager at TNT USA Inc. in Secaucus, NJ; a PM Terminal Manager at Metro T&C in Elizabeth, NJ; an independent logistics consultant; and an Operations Manager at UPS in Secaucus, NJ. Kean attended Saint Peter's College in Jersey City, NJ, for Business Management/Marketing.

Cuff, prior to joining Eastern Connection as an Operations Manager, was an independent contractor for Eastern Connection in Essington, PA. He was also a Station Manager at AIT Worldwide Logistics in Sharon Hill, PA; a Regional Operations Manager at Eagle Global Logistics in Folcroft, PA.; a Dispatch Manager at Jay Gress Inc. in Norristown, PA; and a Pre-load Manager and Next Day Air Supervisor at UPS in Philadelphia, PA. Cuff received his BA from Widener University in Chester, PA.

Rosecrans previously was an Operations Manager at Pirtek-Mobile Hydraulic Repair in Stratford, CT; a Radon Installer at CT.Basement Systems in Stratford and a Plant Operations Manager at Amerair Hiway Systems in Stamford, CT.

Eastern Connection, based in Woburn, Mass., with 20 locations, is the largest regional parcel carrier on the East Coast covering all major zip codes in over 5,000 cities. Now celebrating its 25th anniversary, the company is open 7 days a week and 365 days a year.
